

THE MIDNIGHT CATHEDRAL

A complete 78-card Gothic tarot

22 Major Arcana - 56 Minor Arcana

Original illustrated scenes in antique gold, ivory and silver.

Use these cards as invitations to reflect.

Reading & Printing

ONE CARD: Pause with an intention. Draw one card and consider its invitation.

THREE CARDS: What brought you here - What needs your attention - A possible next step.

PRINTING: Cards measure 2.5 x 3.75 inches. Pages 3-80 are individual fronts; page 81 is the common back. Pages 82-107 are US Letter duplex sheets. Pages 108-133 are A4 duplex sheets.

Print only the range for your paper size at 100% actual size. Use double-sided printing, flip on the long edge. Test the first pair on plain paper before printing the whole deck. Cut at the marks on the front. The back has extra bleed for small alignment differences.

The gold is printed color, not metallic foil. This deck is for reflection; a reading does not establish what will happen.

The Fool

A new doorway is opening. Let curiosity lead you into one small, wholehearted beginning.

The Magician

You already have useful tools. Bring your attention, imagination, and effort together.

The High Priestess

Let the city quiet down. Listen for the answer beneath your first reaction.

The Empress

Make room for beauty and care. What you nurture with patience can begin to flourish.

The Emperor

Give your vision a strong foundation. Clear boundaries can protect what matters.

The Hierophant

Learn from a trusted tradition, then choose which lessons belong in your own life.

The Lovers

Choose a connection that welcomes your whole self. Let your actions reflect your values.

The Chariot

Set your direction and gather your energy. Steady focus carries you farther than scattered speed.

Strength

Meet a difficult moment with calm courage. Gentleness can be a powerful kind of strength.

The Hermit

Step away from the noise for a while. Your own light may be easier to see in quiet.

Wheel of Fortune

The wheel is turning. Stay flexible and notice which opportunities are opening.

Justice

Look at the facts with a clear mind. A fair decision considers both care and consequence.

The Hanged Man

Pause before pushing forward. A different angle may reveal a path you could not see.

Death

Let an old chapter close. Change creates room for a more honest beginning.

Temperance

Find a rhythm that blends effort with rest. Balance grows through small adjustments.

The Devil

Notice what has begun to control your choices. You can loosen a habit one conscious step at a time.

The Tower

A shaky structure needs attention. Face what is changing and build on firmer ground.

The Star

Hope returns like a star above the cathedral. Give yourself time, care, and a gentle next step.

The Moon

The whole picture may still be hidden. Let uncertainty slow your judgement without silencing your intuition.

The Sun

Welcome a moment of warmth and clarity. Share the joy that feels real to you.

Judgement

Listen to the invitation to begin again. What you have learned can guide your next chapter.

The World

Celebrate what you have completed. Carry its lessons with you into a wider world.

Ace of Wands

Let a fresh idea find its first real expression.

Two of Wands

Look beyond the familiar and choose a direction worth exploring.

Three of Wands

Your effort is reaching outward. Watch for the next useful opportunity.

Four of Wands

Pause to celebrate a foundation you have built with others.

Five of Wands

Different voices can create friction. Make room for a fair, lively exchange.

Six of Wands

Receive recognition with grace, and remember those who helped you.

Seven of Wands

Stand by what matters while staying open to useful feedback.

Eight of Wands

Events are gathering speed. Give your energy a clear destination.

Nine of Wands

Protect your energy without closing every door. You have learned resilience.

Ten of Wands

Share the load. Commitment becomes healthier when responsibility is balanced.

Page of Wands

Follow a creative question with playful curiosity.

Knight of Wands

Move boldly toward inspiration, with enough care to keep your footing.

Queen of Wands

Let warmth and confidence make space for your own creative voice.

King of Wands

Lead with a clear vision and encourage others to contribute.

Ace of Cups

Make room for a new feeling or a moment of sincere connection.

Two of Cups

Meet someone with openness and mutual respect.

Three of Cups

Enjoy friendship, shared happiness, and the people who lift your spirit.

Four of Cups

Look gently at what you have overlooked while feeling withdrawn.

Five of Cups

Acknowledge a disappointment, then notice what still remains.

Six of Cups

Receive the kindness of a familiar memory without living only in the past.

Seven of Cups

Name what each tempting choice would mean in everyday life.

Eight of Cups

Leave what no longer nourishes you and seek a deeper connection.

Nine of Cups

Let yourself appreciate a wish or pleasure that has come into reach.

Ten of Cups

Belonging grows through ordinary acts of care and shared joy.

Page of Cups

Approach your feelings with curiosity and a little tenderness.

Knight of Cups

Offer a thoughtful gesture while keeping your intentions honest.

Queen of Cups

Listen deeply, and include your own needs in your compassion.

King of Cups

Let emotional steadiness guide a caring response.

Ace of Swords

Name the truth clearly. A precise thought can open a new direction.

Two of Swords

A decision needs attention. Gather information and hear your own judgement.

Three of Swords

Give a painful truth space to be felt and understood.

Four of Swords

Rest your mind before asking it for another difficult answer.

Five of Swords

Consider whether winning an argument would damage something more valuable.

Six of Swords

Move toward a calmer situation while carrying the lessons you need.

Seven of Swords

Use strategy with integrity. Ask whether concealment is helping or harming.

Eight of Swords

Check which limits are real and which assumptions can be questioned.

Nine of Swords

Bring a worry into daylight. Support can make the burden easier to carry.

Ten of Swords

A difficult chapter is ending. Begin with care rather than demanding instant recovery.

Page of Swords

Ask a clear question and stay willing to learn.

Knight of Swords

Speak directly, with enough patience to understand the other side.

Queen of Swords

Let discernment and honest boundaries protect your peace.

King of Swords

Make a thoughtful decision using clear evidence and fair judgement.

Ace of Pentacles

Give a practical opportunity a patient first step.

Two of Pentacles

Find a workable rhythm between changing responsibilities.

Three of Pentacles

Good work improves through cooperation and shared skill.

Four of Pentacles

Protect your resources while leaving room for generosity and growth.

Five of Pentacles

Seek practical support when a situation feels scarce or isolating.

Six of Pentacles

Let giving and receiving rest on dignity and fair exchange.

Seven of Pentacles

Review what your effort is growing before choosing the next investment.

Eight of Pentacles

Practice a skill with focused, sustainable care.

Nine of Pentacles

Enjoy the independence your patient work has helped you build.

Ten of Pentacles

Think about the lasting support you want to create for yourself and others.

Page of Pentacles

Learn something useful and put the lesson into practice.

Knight of Pentacles

Keep a dependable pace. Consistency can make a modest step valuable.

Queen of Pentacles

Care for your surroundings, resources, and everyday wellbeing.

King of Pentacles

Use experience to build stability and make responsible choices.

Matching Card Back

